GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 25, 2018 Palm Sunday

In today's Gospel passages we see both elation and fall, hope in the midst of the darker sides of our natures. If we allow it, these Gospels hold a mirror to our own fickle hearts. The crowds cry "Hosanna" and the Apostles profess allegiance unto death. In a manner of days - even hours - Jesus is betrayed, abandoned, denied, condemned, tortured, and executed. As God, he could have stopped this horrific narrative from unfolding, but he doesn't. He allows free will to play itself out.

There are nearly two millennia between this spectacle and us. Lent invites us to return to this story. Lent invites us to find ourselves in the people we encounter there. Are we the repentant woman at Bethany? Are we naysayers of such lavish piety? Have we acted in a way that betrays those we love or denies what we know to be good and true? Have we fallen asleep in our faith? Have we unfairly accused others of a crime or immorality we imagine, though perhaps they didn't commit? Do we help others carry their burdens? Do we stand in solidarity with those who suffer? Do we care for the dying?

This week, take up today's Gospel again. Look carefully at the Passion narrative and sit with it in silence. Find yourself in the story and ponder its meaning for your own life. Journey with Jesus to the foot of the Cross so that you too may say, along with the faithful centurion, "truly this man was the Son of God!"

Today some of the most poignant themes of human life come into clear central focus: the feeling of being praised and honored, fear, anxiety, betrayal, despair, doubt, uncertainty, trust, hope, sadness, separation, suffering, death, determination, and courage. These are the emotions and realities that every human being wrestles with often. Jesus, the Son of God, encounters them all. As we journey through life, we have to confront the existential meaning of each of these things. How do they fit into the bigger picture? Jesus shows us most clearly that even those things we fear the most lose their power when we discover that we are being led to new life. Suffering is redemptive. Sin and death give way to grace and life and God's unconditional love conquers all. May we see in Jesus' Way of the Cross the path of truth we all must follow.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO
ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA
25 de marzo de 2018 Domingo de Ramos

En los pasajes del Evangelio de hoy vemos el júbilo y la caída, la esperanza en medio de los lados más oscuros de nuestra naturaleza. Si lo permitimos, estos Evangelios son un espejo de nuestros propios corazones inconstantes. Las multitudes lloran "Hosanna" y los Apóstoles profesan lealtad hasta la muerte. En una cantidad de días, incluso horas, Jesús es traicionado, abandonado, negado, condenado, torturado y ejecutado. Cómo Dios, podría haber evitado que esta narración horrorosa se desarrolle, pero no lo hace. Él permite que el libre albedrío actúe solo.

Hay casi dos milenios entre este espectáculo y nosotros. La Cuaresma nos invita a regresar a esta historia, nos invita a encontrarnos en las personas que estaban allí. ¿Somos la mujer arrepentida en Betania? ¿Somos adversarios de tanta piedad generosa? ¿Hemos actuado de una manera que traicione a aquellos a quienes amamos o negamos lo que sabemos que es bueno y verdadero? ¿Nos hemos dormido en nuestra fe? ¿Hemos acusado injustamente a otros de un crimen o inmoralidad que imaginamos, aunque tal vez ellos no se comprometieron? ¿Ayudamos a otros a llevar sus cargas? ¿Nos solidarizamos con los que sufren? ¿Nos preocupamos por los moribundos?

Esta semana, retoma el Evangelio de hoy. Mira cuidadosamente la narrativa de la Pasión y siéntese con ella en silencio. Encuéntrase en la historia y reflexione sobre el significado de su propia vida. Viaje con Jesús al pie de la Cruz para que usted también pueda decir, junto con el fiel centurión, "¡verdaderamente este hombre era el Hijo de Dios!"

Hoy en día, algunos de los temas más conmovedores están en nuestro enfoque central: el sentir alabanza y honor, el miedo, la ansiedad, la traición, la desesperación, la duda, la confianza, la esperanza, la tristeza, la separación, el sufrimiento, la muerte, la determinación y la valentía. Estos son unos de los sentimientos y realidades con los que lucha el ser humano. Jesús, Hijo de Dios, los experimentó todos. En el camino de la vida, tenemos que considerar el significado de estos sentimientos. ¿Cómo caben dentro de toda mi vida? Jesús nos demuestra claramente que hasta las cosas que nos dan miedo pierden su poder cuando descubrimos que estamos siendo guiados hacia una nueva vida. El sufrimiento es redentor. El pecado y la muerte permiten que la gracia y la vida del amor incondicional de Dios lo vence todo. Que veamos en el camino de la Cruz de Jesús el camino hacia la verdad que debemos seguir.
